

All LBSPB vocational training centres are now using the SRAFP online application system. They are no longer accepting in person applications.

The screenshot shows the SRAFP website interface for vocational training applications. The header includes the SRAFP logo and navigation links for 'Programs and courses', 'Educational opportunities', and 'Contact SRAFP'. The main content area is titled 'Online application in Vocational Training' and features a four-step process: 1. SEARCH for programs, 2. LINK with documents, 3. WAIT for an offer, and 4. APPLY for admission. A 'START NOW' button is prominently displayed, along with a search bar and a 'REGISTERED USER' section.

Similar to SRAM & CAS:

- Personal information (e.g., name, birthdate, sex, place of birth, legal status, mother tongue, language spoken at home, address, permanent code & Social Insurance Number).
- Contact Information (e.g., phone number, email & password)
- Names of parent(s) or guardian(s)
- How did you find out this program was offered in this centre?
- Name of High School: Beurling Academy, & Yes you attended this school in the last year
- Confirm & Submit
- Fee of 6$ waived - LBPSB pays SRAFP

Once you apply online, the centres will contact you to setup an appointment to open up a file with all your official documents and to pay the $20 application fee. Remember to bring in a copy of your application. Depending on the centre there may be mandatory information sessions and/or interview that you will have to attend prior to beginning your studies.
