Your task is to research the 1960s. You must include 3 elements (chosen by the teacher at random) from the following list of items. You will have 3 periods to research, create your poster and make cue cards. During the 3 periods, students should also practice their oral presentation skills.

- 1. Music & recording artists
- 2. TV shows
- 3. Movies and Stars
- 4. Lifestyle
- 5. Products
- 6. Fashion
- 7. Technology
- 8. Home Decor
- 9. Politics
- 10. Automobiles
- 11. Families
- 12. Oklahoma

You will be given a ½ poster board by your teacher. You should be writing key words with some illustrations on your poster. Write your information on 4 cue cards. You will be presenting the information to the class.

 Use a variety of speaking techniques to communicate with a variety of audiences

- Collect, record and verify data
- Access information to be informed and inform others
- Present information in a variety of formats and platforms

Comparing & Contrasting: Edgar Allan Poe

Part A:

After reading Edgar Allan Poe's "The Tell-Tale Heart" as well as the abridged version of "The Black Cat", compare and contrast the two stories. You should look at the main characters, mood, theme, plot, motivations, conflict, resolution, etc. Use the chart below to record your notes on the two stories.

Differences

Part B:

Once you've compared and contrasted the elements of the two stories, write a paragraph or two explaining which narrator is the most sane and why (minimum 150 words). Your explanations should be supported by evidence from the texts.

Make inferences and draw conclusions
