You will be given a ½ poster board by your teacher. You should be writing key words with some illustrations on your poster. Write your information on 4 cue cards. You will be presenting the information to the class.

- Use a variety of speaking techniques to communicate with a variety of audiences

- Collect, record and verify data
- Access information to be informed and inform others
- Present information in a variety of formats and platforms

Comparing & Contrasting: Edgar Allan Poe

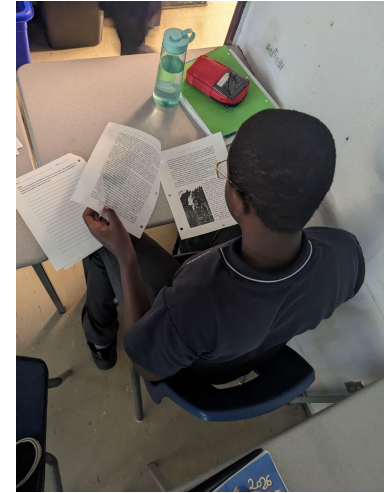

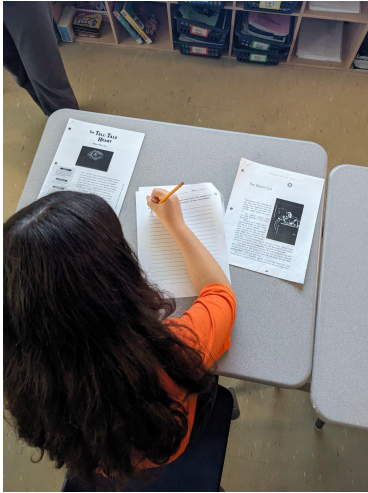

Part A:

After reading Edgar Allan Poe's "The Tell-Tale Heart" as well as the abridged version of "The Black Cat", compare and contrast the two stories. You should look at the main characters, mood, theme, plot, motivations, conflict, resolution, etc. Use the chart below to record your notes on the two stories.

"The Tell-Tale Heart" Differences	Similarities between the two stories	"The Black Cat" Differences

Part B:

Once you've compared and contrasted the elements of the two stories, write a paragraph or two explaining which narrator is the most sane and why (minimum 150 words). Your explanations should be supported by evidence from the texts.

- Make inferences and draw conclusions

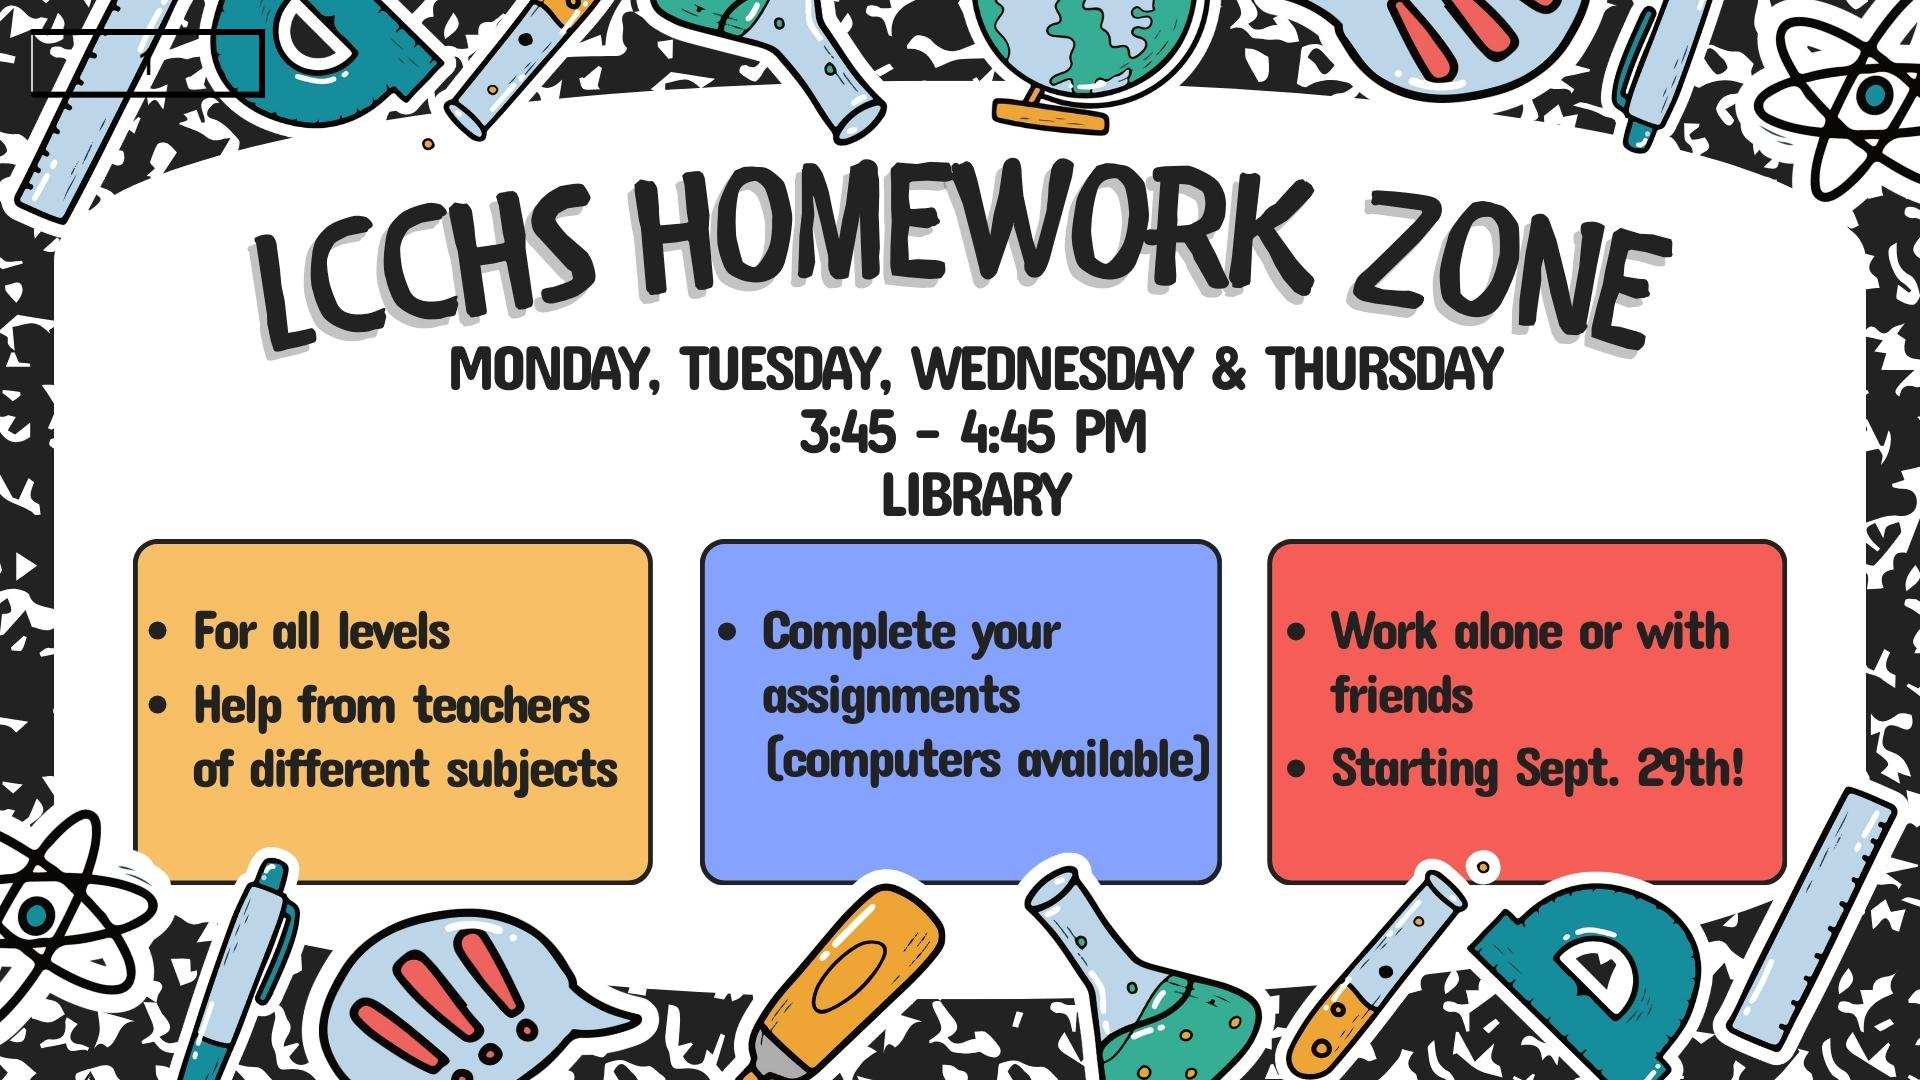

- Compare, contrast and draw connections among (multi)media resources

- Gather and organize relevant information to formulate an argument
