

The image shows the exterior of LaSalle Community Comprehensive High School. The building has a modern design with a grey, textured facade and large windows. A Canadian flag is visible on the left side of the building. In the foreground, there are concrete steps leading up to the entrance, flanked by metal railings. A large blue circular overlay is centered on the image, containing the school's name and the title of the publication.

A group of people are gathered around a long wooden table, engaged in a craft project. The table is covered with various materials and tools, including rolling pins, containers of liquid, small jars, and pieces of clay or dough. Some people are using rolling pins to flatten the material, while others are using tools to shape it. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting an outdoor or well-lit indoor setting. The text "Crafts w/ Ms. Lorine Mondays, C132 Starting February 2nd" is overlaid on the bottom left of the image.
